Mr R Vis [redacted] Vis

August 2007

Dear Mr & Mrs Vis

Your mortgage number [redacted]

I'm writing to let you know that the interest rate on your Flexible/Flexible Plus Tracker Mortgage changed on 3rd August 2007. If you have fully repaid your mortgage since, please disregard this information. Here are the details of your mortgage:

Loan amount	Interest rate
[redacted]	6.2400%

As illustrated below, the August payment remained unchanged. The increase in interest rate from 3rd August is reflected in full or part (depending on the date your payment is collected) in September's payment. The payment from October represents your new monthly payment. Here's how it'll affect your monthly payments:

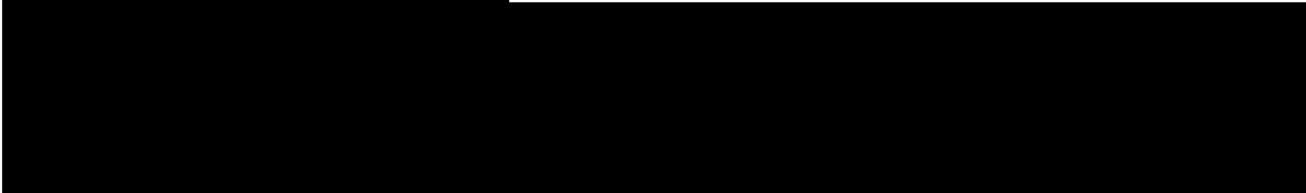

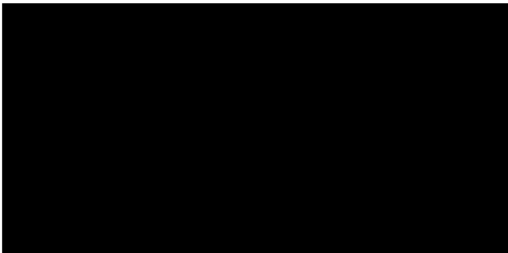

August's payment	26/08/2007	£2,398.49	✓
September's payment	26/09/2007	£2,572.86	- ?
Future payments from October		£2,498.59

Please note your new monthly payment has been calculated based on your mortgage balance as at 3rd August 2007, therefore the figure quoted in this letter will not have taken into consideration any changes you have made to your mortgage account since that date. If any changes have been made since 3rd August, you will have received a separate letter advising you of the new monthly payment required.

Any individual payment arrangement such as under payments, over payments and fixed payments won't be shown in the monthly payments above, but your arrangement will remain in place. If you pay by Direct Debit and you want your payment arrangement to continue you do not need to take any action. If you have a fixed payment however you must ensure that the amount you are currently paying is sufficient to cover the mortgage payments shown above.

If you have any questions, please give us a call quoting your mortgage number.

Yours sincerely

Mr R Vis [redacted] Vis

February 2007

Dear Mr & Mrs Vis

Your mortgage number [redacted]

I'm writing to let you know that the interest rate on your Flexible/Flexible Plus Tracker Mortgage changed on 3rd February 2007. If you have fully repaid your mortgage since, please disregard this information. Here are the details of your mortgage:

Loan amount	Interest rate
£480,499.00	5.7400%

As illustrated below, the February payment remained unchanged. The increase in interest rate from 3rd February is reflected in full or part (depending on the date your payment is collected) in March's payment. The payment from April represents your new monthly payment. Here's how it'll affect your monthly payments:

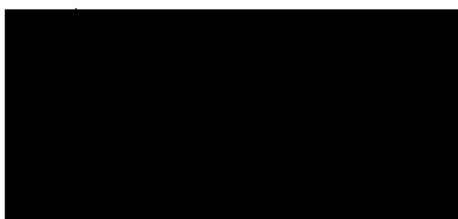

February's payment	26/02/2007	£2,198.28
March's payment	26/03/2007	£2,372.66
→ Future payments from April		£2,298.39

Please note your new monthly payment has been calculated based on your mortgage balance as at 3rd February 2007, therefore the figure quoted in this letter will not have taken into consideration any changes you have made to your mortgage account since that date. If any changes have been made since 3rd February, you will have received a separate letter advising you of the new monthly payment required.

Any individual payment arrangement such as under payments, over payments and fixed payments won't be shown in the monthly payments above, but your arrangement will remain in place. If you pay by Direct Debit and you want your payment arrangement to continue you do not need to take any action. If you have a fixed payment however you must ensure that the amount you are currently paying is sufficient to cover the mortgage payments shown above.

If you have any questions, please give us a call quoting your mortgage number.

Yours sincerely
