Dear Mr [REDACTED]

Mortgage Account [REDACTED]

22/1/2007 ✓

Your mortgage is on a variable rate and is therefore affected by movements in our Standard Variable Rate. Following the recent base rate change announced by the Bank of England, our Standard Variable mortgage rate will increase to 7.44% per annum with effect from 1 February 2007.

If you have a discounted mortgage product, your discount will be applied to the new Standard Variable Rate and will be reflected in the payments detailed below.

The revised interest rate will be applied to your mortgage account from this date and your minimum monthly payment will change from £1,189.88 to £1,254.75. This payment represents the total amount due for all elements of your mortgage account. (N.B. The new minimum monthly payment showing on this letter does not take into account any payment holidays that you may have in place at this time). If you have arranged a regular monthly overpayment, the amount of the agreed overpayment will not change.

The revised payment will be effective from your payment due on 2 March 2007. If you make additional payments in the course of a month, revised payments will be taken at the usual dates following 2 March 2007.

If your payment is made by Direct Debit, it will be adjusted automatically and no further action is required by you. However, if an alternative payment method is in place, please arrange for the payment to be amended accordingly.

Should you require any further information please contact us.
