April, 2008

Thank you for advising me that there are insufficient funds in my Additional Costs Allowance for 2007-08 to meet the outstanding standard claims.

At financial year end I have outstanding claims for the regular monthly payments to cover mortgage interest payments, council tax, telephone and utilities. I also have five months of unclaimed food allowances. I also wish to claim for a television set costing £249 which I bought from Sainsbury's. The total of outstanding bills is £3499.

As we discussed, to enable these payments to be met I enclose a personal cheque for the amount above towards the cost of the B&Q payment I previously claimed for. I would like to pay the majority of the B&Q bill personally in order that the enclosed monthly claims for the recurring costs associated with the Additional Costs Allowance can be paid by the Fees Office.

Thank you for your assistance.

Yours sincerely,

Jim Murphy MP
